BUYER BEWARE
All high school equivalency programs are not created equal

Together, we'll change lives

The GED® test is changing to help more adults become career and college ready. We're setting our sights on the 39 million adults without a high school diploma. Our goals are simple: Open up doors to better paying jobs, new careers, college classrooms, and a brighter future.

Together, we will transform our high school equivalency program into a lifelong learning opportunity. Together, we'll change lives.
