“Committed to excellence in tutor training and adult literacy instruction”

Tutors of Literacy in the Commonwealth (TLC) provides tutor training and tutor coordinator support to adult literacy programs in Pennsylvania. Tutors of Literacy is an independent organization and functions as a special interest division of the Pennsylvania Association for Adult and Continuing Education (PAACE). Services provided by TLC are free of charge and available to all Pennsylvania literacy programs using volunteer tutors; training materials are provided for participants of TLC’s presentations. Please feel free to contact us with your requests and suggestions.

Listed are two online resources provided by TLC.
